A thought for today

The only way that we can live, is if we grow. The only way that we can grow is if we change. The only way that we can change is if we learn. The only way we can learn is if we are exposed. And the only way that we can become exposed is if we throw ourselves out into the open.

The Spellbinding Power of Hope and Resilience

"Life is like a rollercoaster, and if there are no ups and downs in it, would anyone enjoy it?"

Hope and resilience are the engines that drive us forward even in the toughest times. Hope gives us a purpose and direction, a belief that a better future is possible. Resilience is our ability to withstand adversity, to bounce back from setbacks and to keep moving forward. During our teenage, hope co-relates with reaching the inner summit and a sense of purpose. Resilience, a river carving through adversity forges part unseen; hope, a flickering candle illuminates the darkness.

In a world where darkness reigns, a young girl's voice shines like a beacon. Malala's courage ignites a fire of hope, illuminating the path to freedom. Her resilience weaves a tapestry of strength, inspiring a generation to rise, and together, they conquer the shadows, birthing a brighter tomorrow.

Hope provides fuel for resilience and resilience shields risk turning frail. Together, they form a powerful combination that assists us grow as individuals, achieve our goals and overcome obstacles.

In their embrace, we find courage to transcend the boundaries of limitations and to rewrite the narratives of our lives and to emerge, transformed, like a lotus blooming in the desert of despair.

Let's harness power and strength, rise above adversity, shatter limitations, and bloom like a radiant sunrise, illuminating a brighter tomorrow where dreams unfold.

What is home

What is home, they wonder aloud.
I reply: it's the well-worn sweater that envelopes you in warmth,
the mushy pillow that cradles you each night,
the melody that mends a broken heart,
the gentle words that soothe your soul,
the cool breeze that whispers through a summer dawn,
the moonlight that paints tranquil scenes across the sky,
the food that brings joy to your very core,
the scent of incense that softly weaves through the air,
the warmth of coffee that is embraced on a frosty evening.

What is home, they wonder aloud.
I say it's where my heart finds its truest sanctuary,
where every comfort intertwines and peace resides.

From the Field to the Spotlight

Q: How do you manage your academic commitments alongside your dedication to your sport?

Maintaining a balance between academics and sports is undoubtedly challenging, but it fundamentally comes down to how effectively you manage your time based on current priorities. My daily schedule is quite structured: I wake up early for training, return home in the late afternoon, and then complete my training with additional workouts and exercises. Afterward, I focus on studying and ensure I get 7-8 hours of sleep each night, regardless of how hectic my day has been. What distinguishes the exceptional from the average is consistency and focus. While many people know how to create a schedule, only a few consistently adhere to it, no matter how they're feeling or how difficult things get. Achieving your goals ultimately depends on your dedication and ability to stay committed.

Q: How have the experiences and challenges you've encountered through your involvement in this sport contributed to your personal growth and development?

Involvement in shooting has profoundly shaped my personal development by instilling a strong sense of discipline and focus. The precise nature of the sport demands unwavering concentration and a steady hand, which has enhanced my ability to focus on tasks in all areas of my life. Additionally, the sport has sharpened my attention to detail, as every minute adjustment can impact performance. Facing and overcoming various challenges, such as dealing with missed shots or competitive pressure, has also strengthened my resilience, teaching me to handle setbacks constructively and persistently strive for improvement.

Q. What was it that first ignited your passion for this sport ?

From a young age, I have always been deeply involved in sports, starting with athletics and eventually discovering my true passion in shooting. This journey has been a significant part of my life, and it has led me to pursue the sport shooting with a clear sense of purpose. I wanted to find a way to make a meaningful contribution to my country while also making my parents proud. My father's long-standing passion for sports has greatly influenced me, and I consider it a profound privilege to pursue this path with the hope of realizing his dreams. By dedicating myself to shooting, I aim to honor his aspirations and bring distinction to my country. My goal is to excel in this demanding sport, achieving success that reflects positively on both my family and my nation. Through my commitment and hard work, I hope to inspire pride and contribute to the glory of my country, while fulfilling both a personal and familial aspiration
