SPECIAL DIWALI ASSEMBLY

Gauri Goel

The festival of lights, Diwali, was celebrated with great enthusiasm and joy at DPSG International through a beautifully organized special assembly. The event reflected the spirit of togetherness, positivity, and the triumph of good over evil.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome and lively compering by Ananya and Aksh. This was followed by a heartfelt Hindi poem recitation by Gauri, beautifully expressing the deeper meaning of Diwali – spreading light, love, and happiness in every heart.

Adding an element of fun and learning, Nandika conducted an engaging Diwali Quiz, witnessing enthusiastic participation and lively responses from the audience.

The celebration further brightened with a melodious performance titled "Bandish" by the school's music students, filling the atmosphere with festive cheer and rhythm.

The assembly concluded with a motivational message from the Head of School, Ms Dimple Chawla, who appreciated the students for their efforts and urged everyone to celebrate Diwali responsibly and spread the true light of compassion, kindness, and gratitude.

SCHOOL HOSTS A VIBRANT PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCE

Akshara Garg

DPSG International hosted a memorable Parent-Teacher Conference that beautifully combined education, culture, and community spirit. The event began with the traditional lighting of the ceremonial lamp, symbolizing knowledge and enlightenment. Head of School Ms. Dimple Chawla extended a warm welcome, emphasizing the importance of parent-teacher collaboration in shaping confident, responsible, and well-rounded learners.

The cultural program commenced with a soulful Ram Bhajan, followed by a colourful Dandiya dance performed by students, filling the atmosphere with joy and festive energy. A theatrical presentation on Gandhi Jayanti highlighted Mahatma Gandhi's teachings of truth and non-violence, leaving a profound impact on the audience.

Throughout the day, various creative and co-curricular activities—including storytelling sessions, art competitions, dance and music performances, and sports events—kept the students engaged while promoting teamwork and creativity. Parents enthusiastically participated in the IB PYP orientation, gaining insight into the school's innovative teaching methods. They also took part in fun activities such as tug-of-war, hasya kavita recitations, rangoli making, and a ramp walk, which added charm and inclusivity to the event. A lively book fair encouraged reading habits among young learners.

A delightful High Tea offered parents and teachers the opportunity for informal interaction and meaningful discussions. Later, the academic review sessions provided valuable insights into each student's progress during the mid-term.

The day concluded on a joyful and inspiring note, celebrating the shared commitment of students, parents, and teachers toward holistic education and lifelong learning.

CAREER FAIR VISIT

Devanshu Soni

Senior students of the school visited DPSG Vasundhara to participate in a Career Fair—an event aimed to broaden horizons and inspire new aspirations. The fair offered a dynamic platform for students to engage directly with representatives from top universities and experienced career counsellors. They attended insightful sessions on emerging career paths, received practical guidance on college admissions, scholarships, and skill development, and participated in interactive Q&A segments that addressed their queries in real time.

The experience provided students with valuable exposure to diverse opportunities and empowered them to make well-informed decisions about their academic and professional futures. As one enthusiastic participant shared, “It was eye-opening! I feel more confident about my next steps.”

CAREER COUNSELLING SESSION

Akshara Garg

School organised an insightful Career Counselling Session for the board classes on the topic “Study Effectiveness for Board Classes”, conducted by Ms Bhavini from the renowned Jitin Chawla’s Career Counselling Team.

The session focused on developing smart study strategies, time management skills, and effective exam preparation techniques to help students excel in their upcoming board examinations. Ms Bhavini engaged students through interactive discussions and shared practical tips on maintaining focus, reducing exam stress, and balancing academics with well-being.

Students actively participated and found the session extremely motivating and helpful in building confidence for their board journey. Such initiatives by DPSG International aim to guide students not just academically but also emotionally, ensuring holistic readiness for their future endeavours.

CELEBRATING CARING AND CULTURE

Shreyash Gupta

Students of PYP 4 recently came together to celebrate the themes of Caring and Hindi Week through a vibrant assembly. The event was filled with meaningful performances, including role plays, poems, and songs that highlighted the importance of empathy, kindness, and our rich linguistic heritage.

Students enthusiastically presented the Word for the Day, thoughtful messages, and recited beautiful dohe and poems in Hindi, showcasing their language skills and cultural awareness. The assembly also featured expressive dance performances, mudras, and coordinated body movements, reflecting creativity and teamwork across grades.

This celebration not only reinforced the values of caring and respect but also deepened students' appreciation for the Hindi language, culture, and traditions.

A TRIBUTE TO TRUTH AND GOODNESS

Anikait Kapoor

Our school celebrated Gandhi Jayanti and Dusshera with great enthusiasm and reverence on 2nd October 2025. The special assembly was organized to honour the ideals of truth, non-violence, and righteousness taught by Mahatma Gandhi, along with the message of the triumph of good over evil represented by Dusshera. The celebration began with a soulful prayer, followed by the thought for the day and inspiring quotes by Gandhiji emphasizing simplicity, honesty, and peace. A short skit on the life and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi highlighted his role in India's freedom struggle and inspired everyone to embrace his principles of truth and non-violence.

The Dusshera segment featured a narration of Lord Rama's victory over Ravana and a lively dance drama from the Ramayana, depicting key scenes such as the exile of Rama and the final battle. The celebration concluded with the symbolic Ravana Dahan, reinforcing that goodness always prevails. The Head of School, Ms. Dimple Chawla, appreciated the sincere efforts of the teachers and students in organizing the event, which left everyone deeply inspired by the values of peace, truth, and righteousness.

CLASS X OBSERVES INDIAN AIR FORCE DAY

Tejas Goel

Class X organized a special assembly to commemorate Indian Air Force Day, observed annually to mark the establishment of the Indian Air Force in 1932. The assembly aimed to enlighten students about the IAF's history, significance, and achievements while nurturing a spirit of patriotism. Anchors Manas and Tejas warmly welcomed the audience and spoke about the remarkable growth of the IAF into one of the world's most powerful air forces. The school choir rendered a melodious Hindi prayer, followed by an inspiring thought shared by Ali. Luv and Ridhaan presented detailed insights into key IAF operations, and Uday conducted an engaging quiz to test students' knowledge. The event concluded with the National Anthem, leaving students informed, inspired, and deeply appreciative of the Air Force's service to the nation.

STORYTELLING SESSION

Aaimah Athar

The library at DPSG International buzzed with excitement as more than 50 little learners from Eva Kids Play School joined an engaging storytelling session conducted by our librarian Ms. Manju Sharma. The children enjoyed the magical world of stories, followed by fun interactions that sparked their imagination and love for reading. Such community initiatives help nurture reading habits, creativity, and values from an early age.

HINDI POEM RECITATION ACTIVITY

Avisha Garg

The STARZ students of the school enthusiastically participated in the Hindi Poem Recitation activity. The little ones confidently presented their delightful poems with clear expression and sweet voices. Their performances reflected their growing love for the language and boosted their confidence and communication skills.

LEARNING THE MAGIC OF NUMBERS!

Raagavi Chauhan

The tiny tots of DPSG International – Kindergarten enjoyed an exciting and engaging session on Ascending Order. Through colourful number notes and interactive activities, the little learners explored how numbers grow from small to big. With hands-on practice and fun learning tools, the children arranged numbers step by step, understanding the concept with great enthusiasm. Their bright smiles and eager participation made the classroom come alive with joy and curiosity.

ROLE PLAY ON ADAPTATION

Shreyash Gupta

PYP 4 students showcased their understanding of adaptation through an engaging role play. They creatively portrayed how animals and plants adjust to survive in different environments. The activity encouraged curiosity, observation skills, and a deeper appreciation of nature's diversity.

GHAZIABAD DISTRICT SKATING CHAMPIONSHIP 2025

Gauri Goel

The 10th Ghaziabad District Skating Championship 2025 and the selection trials for the UP State Speed Skating Team for the forthcoming National Championship 2025 were held on 20th & 21st September 2025 at the JSR Skating Track, Chipyana, Ghaziabad.

The event was graced by Mr. Sanjeev Sharma, MLA Ghaziabad, as the Chief Guest. The championship witnessed the participation of more than 300 skaters representing various schools, clubs, and skating academies of Ghaziabad, making it a truly competitive and vibrant sporting occasion.

We are delighted to announce that Prince Malik of Class XII-C represented our school with great dedication and secured the Second Position in all three events – One Lap+D, 1500 meters, and 1000 meters. With this remarkable performance, he has also been selected to represent the Ghaziabad District Speed Skating Team at the forthcoming UP State Championship 2025.

The championship not only provided a platform for young talent to showcase their skills but also fostered sportsmanship and enthusiasm for skating in the district.

Asad Malik PYP 3 – BOOK REVIEW

Title: The Gingerbread Man

Author: Rickie

Genre: Short Story

Publisher: Reader's World

Summary:

Once upon a time, there was an old lady who was baking a gingerbread man shaped like a boy. To her surprise, the gingerbread man came to life and ran away from her house. Everyone started chasing him because they wanted to eat him. On his way, he met many people and animals. Finally, a clever fox tricked the gingerbread man and ate him.

My Views on the Story:

I liked the way the author planned the story. However, I feel the writing style could have been a little better. Overall, the story was fun, engaging, and enjoyable to read.

My Views on the Characters:

My favourite character is the clever fox because of her sharp and cunning mind. She was the only one who could catch and eat the gingerbread man.

My Opinion on the Book:

I was impressed by the imagination and creativity in this book. It teaches us an important lesson – we should not trust strangers easily. I would definitely recommend this book to readers who enjoy short and interesting stories.

Overall Rating: ★★★★★☆ (4/5)
