PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Readers,

October has been a vibrant month filled with celebration, reflection, and meaningful learning. A major highlight was the reopening of our upgraded school library – a modern, welcoming space that encourages curiosity, research, and a lifelong love for reading.

Our Open House reaffirmed the value of a strong home – school partnership, while the Alumni Spotlight inspired students with real stories of perseverance. We extend special congratulations to Manny Singh for securing 99.9 percentile in JEE and joining IIT Bombay – a proud moment for the entire school.

The joyous Diwali celebrations brought colour and togetherness to the campus. While most students displayed responsibility and maturity, a few reminders reinforced the importance of ownership and mindful conduct in shared spaces – values central to our school ethos.

The school further strengthened its commitment to social causes through the Think Pink initiative. Medical professionals interacted with students and parents, creating awareness about Breast Cancer, the importance of early detection, and the need to prioritise personal well-being. Such programmes help nurture empathy, awareness, and social accountability among our learners.

Across classrooms, this month reflected academic rigour and meaningful learning. Students engaged in revision sessions, discussions, collaborative tasks, and structured practice. With Pre-Boards and year-end assessments approaching, our CARE classes have been intensified to provide personalised academic support. Students are encouraged to follow disciplined study routines, practise consistently, and seek clarity whenever needed. Our teachers continue to provide individual attention, ensuring that every child feels guided, supported, and confident.

I am proud of the collective spirit demonstrated by students, teachers, and parents. Together, let us nurture a school culture where academic excellence, personal responsibility, and strong values walk hand in hand.

Warm regards,
Dr. Vinod Kumar

The spirit of October encourages us to deepen our mindfulness, strengthen our intention, and reconnect with our true inner light.

With each quiet dawn and each serene twilight of October, may our minds grow calm, our hearts soften, and our spirits awaken. Let us nurture kindness, compassion, and gratitude – qualities that anchor us amidst life's many changes.

May this sacred month guide us toward deeper self-awareness, inspiring us to embody peace, wisdom, and harmony in every thought, word, and action.
